Music Scholarship
 Ozarks offers music scholarships at three levels:
 Music Major – the department seeks talented students, but we will give preference to students with exceptional academic records. We will wait until we know what academic scholarship the student is considered for, and then we can award music scholarships on top of the academic ones up to full tuition. The awards are renewable for four years contingent on academic progress.
 Music minor – we are able to offer a Fine Arts Scholarship worth $2000 per year for four years contingent on academic progress.
 Choral scholarship – only available to non-music major or minors, and it requires participation in the University choirs

Regents and Presidential Scholarships

$19,000-full tuition

Last year, Wartburg awarded nearly 500 Regents and Presidential Scholarships to first-year students valued at about $8.4 million. Wartburg evaluates merit based scholarships on a combination of a student's high school grade point average, class rank, and ACT/SAT score. Typically, students who have a high school minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 and rank in the top 25 percent of their high school class AND have an ACT composite score of 23 (1080 SAT) or higher will receive a Regents or Presidential Scholarship. Students who qualify and choose to participate in one of Wartburg's Scholarship Days have the opportunity to increase their Regents or Presidential Scholarship. All awards are based on merit and not financial need, are renewable for a maximum of eight terms contingent upon full time enrollment and the maintenance of at least a 2.7 cumulative grade point average. Full-tuition scholars are required to live on campus all four years.

Act Six Scholarship Program
Full-tuition and fees

An initiative of Urban Ventures, Act Six is Minneapolis—St. Paul's only full-tuition, full-need urban leadership award. Launched in 2002 by the Northwest Leadership Foundation in Tacoma, Washington, Act Six seeks to develop urban and community leaders to be agents of transformation on campus and in their home communities. Since the program's inception, 61 cohorts of ethnically diverse, mostly first-generation, low-income Act Six scholars have enrolled at eight colleges and universities in the Pacific Northwest. In 2015 Act Six expanded its reach and developed a program site to serve Twin Cities' students in collaboration with South Minneapolis nonprofit Urban Ventures.

Nine students were selected by the Act Six program as emerging urban and community leaders to receive scholarships to attend University of Northwestern through the Act Six program for the 2015–16 academic year.

Learn about the program and find out about applying online today! This scholarship is only available to high school seniors going into their first year of college. Act Six applications are due to Urban Ventures in November, prior to the year the student is applying to college.

Huge-NWU Scholarship

The Huge-NWU Scholarship is awarded annually to exceptional first-year students at Nebraska Wesleyan University. Made possible by the Harry and Reba Huge Foundation, this scholarship supports academic excellence in all fields with up to full tuition, fees and residency over four years.

Applicants are also eligible for:

$4,000 Huge-NWU Commendation Scholarships (11 awards)

$1,000 Huge-NWU Recognition Scholarship (number of awards varies)

Application Deadline: December 1

To qualify, a student must:

Attend an accredited high school or home school anywhere in the United States or an equivalent high school anywhere in the world and graduate from such accredited high school in the spring of the year in which applications are due.

Have an ACT score of 27 or higher (SAT of 1210 or higher) and rank in the top 20% of their high school class (This criteria may be waived for students who are graduating from a school that does not rank.)

Submit two short essays and two letters of recommendation.

Live in approved NWU campus housing (including Greek housing) all four years (except when studying abroad) and become fully involved in campus life via organizations, activities, intercollegiate or intramural athletics and social life.

Meet all criteria for admission to Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Huge-NWU Scholarships are awarded to the most qualified applicants regardless of other grants or scholarships to attend NWU. Scholarships are awarded to students pursuing any academic course of study and to students who have not yet decided upon an academic major.

Foster Care Scholarship

In 2013, Thomas White, president of Cedarville University, introduced the Foster Care Scholarship as an opportunity for the institution to answer God's call to care for orphans. Even before the scholarship was announced, God was leading a young woman to take a step of faith and apply to Cedarville. God answered her prayers – and met her need – through the awarding of the first Foster Care Scholarship. It is with humility and joy that Cedarville continues this investment in one young person each year that has grown up in the foster care system and is now seeking an opportunity to pursue an undergraduate education that reflects a biblical worldview.

Criteria:

To be considered for this scholarship, the student must:

provide documentation that verifies being in custody of either a foster home or ward of a state meet all admissions requirements

The Presidential Scholars are students at the University, who by virtue of meeting prescribed criteria are the recipients of a full scholarship (tuition, room & board) during eight semesters. These scholarships represent the concern of the President, (1) to identify students who demonstrate academic excellence, (2) to articulate a concern for a methodology to encourage those who demonstrate excellence, (3) to provide symbolic recognition via academic scholarships to recipients and (4) to establish a technique whereby the University may identify a cadre of intellectual scholars. The Presidential scholarship is awarded to incoming freshmen for two semesters and is renewable for 6 semesters if the student meets the renewal eligibility criteria.

ROTC Scholarships for two, three or four years, are competitive, merit-based scholarships managed by the United States Army Cadet Command. These grants are valued at full tuition and fees each year, pay $1,200 yearly for the cost of books and a tax-free monthly subsistence allowance. Wofford College additionally contributes the remainder of the cost of on-campus room and board for three- and four-year Army ROTC scholarship awardees after other grant aid has been applied. Students offered an Army ROTC Scholarship will qualify for the Wofford College ROTC Scholarship valued at the current cost of room and board less any other grants and/or scholarships the student is eligible to receive. This will encompass both three- and four-year scholarships. The Wofford College ROTC Scholarship funds will be awarded freshman year for the three-year scholars to assist with cost until the actual receipt of the Army ROTC Scholarship in the sophomore year.

NOTE: Students are expected to file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each academic year. Prospective ROTC or current students interested should contact the ROTC Enrollment and Scholarship Officer, Wofford College at 864-597-4338.

The Secular Society Scholars, nominally five each year, will be selected from entering first-year students at Hollins who apply and demonstrate academic competence, creativity, and a passion for a Hollins liberal arts education. Applicants will have been active and engaged during their high school years but have also sought learning experiences outside the classroom. Scholars will receive guidance and support in their creative endeavors, preparing them for lifelong contributions to Hollins, the state, the nation, and the world. Selection of the candidates will be made by a committee headed by the Scholar's Mentor. Each applying student will have her application evaluated in a highly personalized manner. While grades and test scores can be indicative of academic success, the committee is aware that they don't represent the whole student, and as result, they are not used to automatically include or exclude an applicant for consideration. A selection of The Secular Society Scholar candidates will be invited to participate in an interview weekend held on campus in February 2016.
